Memo Village Board Meeting Agenda Memorandum ###.#### Justification to keep reserve engine.pdf

Emergency Service Report - Recommendation Reserve Fire Truck.pdf

Chief Time Lambie, W7723 Wisconsin Ave; would like to keep truck for 3 more years, rural responses with engines explanation.

Aaron Sauer, W7273 Midnight Way; concerned about Village operating at a minimum level.

Chris Schlechta, N1413 Stardust Dr; staffing requirements and apparatus concerns.

Mike Woods, W6669 Grandview Rd; multiple occurrences when Greenville did not have tankers when needed; benefits of keeping the truck.

Motion by Brittany Helf, second by Andy Peters to approve keeping the 2004 Pierce Pumper/Tender as a reserve. Motion carried 4 – 0.

9.b Discussion of Fire Chief Position.

Emergency Service Report - Recommendation Fire Chief.pdf

Randy Immel, N1876 Donna Dr; explanation of the history of the public service workers in Greenville, concerns about hiring a full-time Chief.

Mike Woods, W6669 Grandview Rd; concerns about full-time Chief.

Chris Schlechta, N1413 Star Dust Dr; suggested looking into daily call volume and duties to determine the type of Chief that is needed.

Direction from Village Board is to make this a top priority by July 1st, 2026 to gather the metrics of the Fire Station needs, form a committee if necessary, and funnel Board questions to Chief to bring to fire committee. Brittany Helf is looking for information on annual call volume of past 5-10 years, breakdown of fire rescue service calls, active firefighter staffing levels and retention, challenges with recruitment or open positions, understanding keeping up with training and compliance requirements, estimate of administrative workload, fire inspections, development reviews and prevention, compare that with population and service demand projections, and compare our data compared to other similar sized municipalities.

Summary report due July 1st, meeting July 8th.

9.c Discussion on CIP Projects.

2027 CIP Summary.pdf
